FCM CUSTOMER BUSINESS

On November 25th, 2019, The Charles Schwab Corporation and The TD Ameritrade Holding Corporation announced that they entered into a definitive agreement for Schwab to acquire TD Ameritrade in a stock transaction valued at approximately $26 billion. On October 6, 2020, TD Ameritrade Holding Corporation (“TD Ameritrade”) and Charles Schwab Corporation (“CSC”) reached deal close and CSC completed the acquisition of TD Ameritrade. The individual FCMs of each company (TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex and Charles Schwab & Co) will continue to operate as separate, but affiliated entities, subject to future change.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex is owned by TD Ameritrade Online Holdings Corporation, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of TD Ameritrade Holding Corporation (along with its subsidiaries “AMTD”), a publicly held company with a market capitalization of over $27 billion and liquid assets in excess of $200 million. AMTD, through its broker-dealer and FCM subsidiary, serves an investor base comprised of over 11.0 million funded customer accounts with over $1.1 trillion in customer assets.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex caters to self-directed retail futures and forex customers. Our customer base is more than 90% individual or joint accounts. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex clients do not have direct market or API access to the futures markets. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex offers approximately 70 different non-commission forex pairs. Please see TD Ameritrade’s website for a complete list of products offered.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex does not own any futures exchange clearing memberships or self-clear any futures or futures options products. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex utilizes two clearing firms, ADM Investor Service, Inc., and ABN AMRO Clearing Chicago LLC, to clear its futures business. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex utilizes JP Morgan Chase Bank N.A. as its forex prime broker and JP Morgan, Citadel Securities, XTX Markets, and Virtu Financial as forex liquidity providers. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex is not involved directly or indirectly in taking proprietary trading positions in listed derivatives or engaging in arbitrage activities of any kind. In addition, TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex is not involved in swaps or engaged in over-the-counter derivatives trading.

PERMITTED DEPOSITORIES AND COUNTERPARTIES

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex will hold forex customer funds in cash at US Bank in an omnibus account titled “TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex LLC CFTC Regulation 5.80 Retail Forex Obligation Account.”

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex maintains and adheres to a separate Depository Selection Policy. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex performs regular reviews of their bank depositories, counterparties, and vendors to ensure that they can support the futures and forex business. The reviews include, but are not limited to:

- A yearly review of the operational capabilities, ideally via a SOC1 or external audit.
- A quarterly operational review focused on any issues or concerns raised during the prior quarter.
- A quarterly review of any regulatory actions or fines as well as any major changes in personnel supporting TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex’s business with the depository, counterparty, or vendor.

The results of each of these reviews are shared during the quarterly TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex Risk Committee meeting. An appropriate action plan, if needed, will be put in place. It is important to note that additional reviews may take place outside of the listed formal reviews. Depending on the depth of the review, it may or may not be reported to the Risk Committee.
MATERIAL RISKS

While TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex does not believe any of the following risks to be material, TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex recognizes that customers may be subject to liquidity, credit, and/or counterparty risks by entrusting funds with TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex attempts to limit these risks by maintaining excess capital and investments in cash or highly liquid, readily accessible products.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex routes and executes only retail forex transactions for self-directed customers. Customers are not permitted to route a trade unless sufficient funds are available in their forex account. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex executes forex trades on a Riskless Principal basis. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex does not act in the capacity of a market maker or dealer. Regarding debit or unsecured risk, TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex requires margin deposits pursuant to NFA minimums, but reserves the right to raise in excess of NFA minimums, place an account in closing only status, liquidate the account wholly or in part, and employ an automatic liquidation feature.

In order to assure that it is in compliance with its regulatory capital requirements and that it has sufficient liquidity to meet its ongoing business obligations, TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex holds a significant portion of its nonsegregated liquid assets in cash, highly liquid money market mutual funds, and/or U.S. Treasury securities guaranteed as to principal and interest. As of the date of this disclosure, all nonsegregated liquid funds are held in either 1) cash in a bank account or 2) highly liquid money market mutual funds, both of which are in the name of TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex. Therefore, all nonsegregated liquid assets are available on demand.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex carries no debt on the balance sheet and is therefore not financially leveraged. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex currently has approximately $551 million of net capital as of January 31, 2021. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex holds 100% of investments in overnight cash or cash equivalents, and therefore has adequate availability at all times. Principal liabilities are payables to clients, accounts payable, and deferred income taxes.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex holds forex customer funds in cash; therefore, the weighted average maturity is .003 years and the weighted average yield is 0.0 percent. Customer funds are not invested in any affiliated entity.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex parent corporation, TD Ameritrade Holding Corp., is rated A and A2 by S&P and Moody’s, respectively.

TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex does not act as a counterparty to eligible contract participants (ECP) as defined in Section 1a(18) of the Act. TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex has no material commitments.

MATERIAL COMPLAINTS OR ACTIONS

On April 10, 2018, Diego Kruever, Kareem Sandgarten and Amir Rahimi, filed a putative class action lawsuit against TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex and TD Ameritrade, Inc. (collectively, TD Ameritrade) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. Plaintiffs, clients of TD Ameritrade, allege that TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex, wrongfully liquidated plaintiffs’ short put options on E-Mini S&P 500 futures contracts between the stock market closing on February 5, 2018, and the stock market opening on February 6, 2018, during which time they allege the options futures markets were illiquid. Plaintiffs claimed that the conduct of TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex operated as a fraud or deceit in violation of section 6(b)(6) of the Commodity Exchange Act and section 180.1(a)(3) of the CFTC regulations, and breached an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by failing to liquidate positions in a commercially reasonable way. Plaintiffs claimed that TD Ameritrade, Inc. aided and abetted the alleged violations by TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex. Plaintiffs alleged that defendants caused plaintiffs and class members to incur tens of millions of dollars of losses. On July 23, 2018, TD Ameritrade filed a motion to dismiss plaintiffs’ second amended complaint, which plaintiffs opposed. On October 5, 2018, the Court dismissed with prejudice the claims that the conduct of TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex operated as a fraud or deceit in violation of the above-referenced sections of the Commodity Exchange Act and the CFTC regulations, and the aiding and abetting claim against TD Ameritrade, Inc. The Court denied the motion to dismiss the claim of breach of an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. On December 17, 2018, the Court denied Plaintiffs’ motion for class certification. Discovery has begun. Another lawsuit containing substantial similar allegations against TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex has been filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California, and other clients have filed similar claims in arbitrations. TD Ameritrade intends to vigorously defend against the lawsuits and the arbitrations and is unable to predict the outcome or the timing of the ultimate resolution of this litigation, or the potential losses, if any, that may result.

Other Legal and Regulatory Matters – TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex may be subject to a number of other lawsuits, arbitrations, claims, and other legal proceedings in connection with its business. Some of these legal actions include claims for substantial or unspecified compensatory and/or punitive damages.

In addition, in the normal course of business, TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex discusses matters with its regulators raised during regulatory examinations or otherwise subject to their inquiry. These matters could result in censures, fines, penalties, or other sanctions. In light of the uncertainties involved in such matters, TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex is unable to predict the outcome or the timing of the ultimate resolution of these matters, or the potential losses, fines, penalties, or equitable relief, if any, that may result, and it is possible that the ultimate resolution of one or more of these matters may be material to TD Ameritrade Futures & Forex’s results of operations for a particular reporting period.
