Margin Privileges

All qualified accounts are opened as margin accounts unless you decline margin privileges in this section. A margin account allows you to borrow from TD Ameritrade against certain securities as your collateral. A decline in the value of your securities may require you to provide additional funds, or force the sale of securities in your account. Selling short can expose you to potentially unlimited risk. To learn more about the potential benefits of margin borrowing and the associated risks involved, read the Margin Account Handbook and the Margin Disclosure Document located within the forms library: <https://www.tdameritrade.com/form-library>. You must decline margin privileges if the governing documents of the Business do not authorize margin borrowing.

Check this box if you want to decline margin privileges. If you do not check the box, your account will be opened as a margin account if it qualifies. By submitting this Account Application without checking the box to decline margin privileges, you represent that you understand and agree that margin features are subject to the terms and conditions of the Client Agreement, which you have agreed to by submitting this Account Application. You understand and acknowledge that securities securing loans from TD Ameritrade may be lent to TD Ameritrade and lent by TD Ameritrade to others. You also acknowledge that if you trade "on margin" you are borrowing money from TD Ameritrade and that you understand the requirements and risks associated with margin as summarized in the Margin Account Handbook and Margin Disclosure Document.

Unless I have declined the margin feature, I acknowledge that securities securing loans from TD Ameritrade may be lent to TD Ameritrade and lent by TD Ameritrade to others. I also acknowledge that if I trade "on margin," I am borrowing money from TD Ameritrade and that I understand the requirements and risks associated with margin as summarized in the Margin Handbook and Margin Disclosure Document.

Important information about procedures for opening a new account:

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also utilize a third-party information provider for verification purposes and/or ask for a copy of your driver's license or other identifying documents. By my signature below, I attest that I am of legal age to contract, and I certify, to the best of my knowledge that the information provided on this application is complete and correct.

All Authorized Agents and Officers must provide their signatures below.

If an options account has been requested, we (Authorized Agents) agree to abide by the rules of the listed options exchanges and the Options Clearing Corporation, and will not violate current position and exercise limits. We are aware of the risks involved in options trading and represent the fact that the Entity is financially able to bear such risks and withstand options-trading losses. If I have applied for margin and/or option privileges, I represent, warrant, and certify that all documents, agreements and applicable laws governing the Business permit the establishment and maintenance of a margin account and options trading, as applicable.

If this is a Sole Proprietorship account, I certify that I am engaged in business under the assumed name, tax ID, and address listed in Section 3 of this application. I am the sole proprietor of the business so conducted, and no other person, partnership, or corporation has any ownership interest therein. All securities and other property in the name of the sole proprietorship are owned solely by me.

If I am a U.S. person for tax purposes:

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that: (1) the number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number; (2) I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Services (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; (3) I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person; and (4) the FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

If I have been notified by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding because I have failed to report all interest and dividends on my tax return, I must cross out (2) in this certification.

If I am not a U.S. Person for tax purposes:

I am submitting the applicable Form W-8 with this form to certify my foreign status.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
